

Open University
Sector: Education	Project Value: JD20M	Location: Amman
Potential Opportunity The principle of the Open University i.e. distance learning is 'Education For Everybody' promoting educational opportunity and social justice through accessible high quality University learning. Residential day schools or retreats are an essential part of the process to enable students to mix with other students thereby accelerating the learning process. Distance learning is available on the internet and many facilities will accept students from all over the world. However, the learning facilities, tutors and course work tend to be in English. There are some MENA distance learning schools in Israel, Saudi Arabia and Morocco. The opportunity will be to open Jordan's own Open University.
I. Description of the Business An existing University either international or based in Jordan with the resources and ability to operate an effective open learning program and provide learning facilities including the necessary investment in residential facilities accessible all year round, production of electronic education materials, tutorials, assignments etc...
